ESSILOR LAUNCHES INTERNATIONAL GRADUATE RECRUITMENT PROGRAM ‘SEE GROWTH’

Essilor recently launched its international graduate program, ‘See Growth’, and is now looking for bright minds with business acumen and an open mindset to join its global talent pool, and contribute to the future success of its business.

The program has the dual objectives of bringing in new external talent with critical skills to strengthen Essilor’s capabilities and creating a global talent pool to feed the pipeline of its future leaders. The opportunities are in business analytics, strategy, business development, finance, project management, digital transformation, P&L management, and will be open for applications until 31 July 2019.
Comprising of two tracks for fresh graduates and experienced professionals, with robust two-year and 18-month placement programs respectively, See Growth is a launch pad for many exciting opportunities within a dynamic and evolving industry. The program offers selected candidates the opportunity to undertake international placements across the business to become fully immersed in required domains of expertise.

The program works in collaboration with the top leading universities around the globe, including Stanford University, National University of Singapore, Wharton, Oxford University, Peking University, HEC, Bocconi University etc.
