CHARTING THE HISTORY OF THE ESSILOR GROUP

This week Essilor celebrates 40 years as a listed company. We invite you to revisit some of the milestones in the history of the Group, from its origins in 1849 as a workers' cooperative to key innovations of the 21st century that have transformed the world of ophthalmic optics and fuelled the international growth of Essilor.

This film celebrates the unique industrial, commercial and human adventure that today unites 60,000 people across the world in a shared mission to improve lives by improving sight.
